

Equal Opportunities Policy

Purpose and scope

The purpose of this Equal Opportunities Policy is to communicate our commitment to equality of opportunity in employment with the aims of ensuring that all employees and job applicants are treated fairly and equally and supporting the Hughes Driver Training Ltd objective of providing a working environment that is free from all forms of discrimination.

The policy applies to all staff within the company, including employees and other workers, such as contractors. All staff are expected to put this policy into practice.

A copy of this policy will be distributed to all employees and can also be found on the company notice board in reception, the shared drive and in the employee handbook. It will also be made available to other workers on their engagement. Job seekers and applicants can request a copy of the policy and it will be sent upon request. In addition, all employees will receive training on this policy during their induction.

Any questions about the policy should be directed to the Director, Michael Hughes.

This policy does not form part of employees' contracts of employment and the company may amend it at any time.

The policy is reviewed annually and may be amended at any time.

Policy statement

Hughes Driver Training Ltd is fully committed to providing equality in the workplace and all opportunities for, and during employment, will be afforded to individuals fairly and irrespective of age, disability, gender, gender reassignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, race including colour, ethnic or national origins and nationality, religion or belief or sexual orientation ("the protected characteristics"). We aim to create a working environment that is free from discrimination and harassment in any form, in which all staff, clients and suppliers are treated with dignity and respect.

Hughes Driver Training Ltd will not unlawfully discriminate in the arrangements we make for recruitment and selection or in the opportunities afforded for employment, training, or any other benefit. All decisions will be made fairly and objectively. We aim, as far as reasonably practicable, to ensure that all our working practices are applied fairly and consistently and, where necessary, we will take reasonable steps to avoid or overcome any disadvantage these may cause and to promote equality.

Hughes Driver Training Ltd respects an individual's right to choose whether to belong to a trade union and membership status will have no bearing on an applicant's suitability for employment or result in any detrimental treatment when working for Hughes Driver Training Ltd.

Specific Responsibilities

Hughes Driver Training Ltd has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy and for ensuring compliance with the Equality Act 2010 and associated legislation and for observing relevant Codes of Practice.

The company director is responsible for monitoring and reviewing the policy and for ensuring that all employment-related policies, procedures, and practices adhere to this policy.

All staff have a responsibility not to discriminate or harass other staff, learners, customers, and business associates and to report any such behaviour of which they become aware to the company director.

The company Director is responsible for implementing the Equal Opportunities Policy and must apply the policy as part of their day-to-day management of the company.

Forms of discrimination

The following are forms of discrimination that this policy aims to avoid:

Direct Discrimination occurs when a person is treated less favourably because of a protected characteristic that they either have or are thought to have. Direct discrimination can also occur by way of association, which is when a person is treated less favourably because, for example, their spouse or partner or other relative has the protected characteristic.

Indirect Discrimination occurs when a provision, criterion or practice is applied equally to everyone, but has a disproportionately adverse effect on people who share a particular protected characteristic. A person with the protected characteristic who is disadvantaged in that way has the right to complain.

To be justified the provision, criterion, or practice must be necessary for legitimate business reasons in circumstances where less discriminatory alternatives are not available.

Victimisation occurs where someone is treated unfavourably because he/she has raised a complaint under this policy or taken legal action, in relation to any alleged act of unlawful discrimination, against the company or because he/she has supported someone else in doing this.

Harassment is unwanted conduct that violates an individual's dignity or creates an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating, or offensive environment. Harassment can take many different forms and may involve inappropriate actions, behaviour, comments, emails, or physical contact that causes offence or are objectionable.

Harassment may involve a single incident or persistent behaviour that extends over a period and can occur even if someone did not mean to cause offence. It also means that a person can be subjected to harassment by behaviour that is not aimed at them directly but which they nonetheless find unpleasant.

Harassment is always unacceptable and where it relates to a protected characteristic it will amount to an unlawful act of discrimination.

Discrimination arising from Disability - In addition to the above, it is unlawful to treat a person unfavourably because of something that is the result, effect, or outcome of their disability, unless the treatment is necessary and can be objectively justified. Furthermore, employers have a duty to make reasonable adjustments to ensure that disabled applicants, employees, or other workers are not disadvantaged.

Creating equal opportunities in the workplace

There are several ways in which Hughes Driver Training Ltd aims to ensure equal opportunities in the workplace, including:

Recruitment and selection

Recruitment and selection procedures will be free from bias or discrimination. Recruitment procedures will be conducted objectively and will be based upon specific and reasonable job-related criteria. Decisions regarding an individual's suitability for a particular role will be based on aptitude, ability and subject to two suitable references.

Hughes Driver Training Ltd will consider making appropriate reasonable adjustments to the recruitment process to ensure that disabled applicants are not disadvantaged.

Wherever possible, vacancies will be advertised as being suitable for flexible working, to encourage applications from individuals seeking work on a part time basis.

Hughes Driver Training Ltd will consider taking appropriate positive action to enable or encourage applications from persons with a protected characteristic that is underrepresented in the organisation.

Career development and training

All staff will be given an appropriate induction to enable them to fulfil the responsibilities of their role.

All employees will be encouraged to develop their full potential and we will not unreasonably deny an employee access to training or other career development opportunities. These will be identified as part of an ongoing performance management process and will be determined objectively, considering the needs of the business and available resources.

Terms and conditions

Our terms and conditions of service will be applied fairly, and benefits and facilities will be made available to all staff who should have access to them, as appropriate.

Hughes Driver Training Ltd operates a pay and benefits system that is transparent, based on objective criteria and free from bias to ensure that all employees are rewarded fairly.

Terms and conditions of employment for part-time employees will be provided on a pro-rata basis to full-time employees.

Employment policies and practices

Hughes Driver Training Ltd aims to ensure that employment policies and practices, including any rules or requirements, do not directly or indirectly discriminate and are applied in a non-discriminatory manner. We will ensure that all disciplinary decisions are fair and consistent and that selection for redundancy is based on objective criteria.

Hughes Driver Training Ltd will consider making appropriate reasonable adjustments to the working environment or any work arrangements that would alleviate any substantial disadvantage these cause disabled staff.

We will aim as far as reasonably practicable to accommodate the requirements of different religions and cultures and will consider requests from employees to vary or change their working hours to enable them to care for a dependant.

Working environment

All individuals have a right to be treated with dignity and respect and the company takes reasonable steps to protect staff from discrimination, bullying or harassment and, in the event of a complaint, we will take appropriate action to prevent, as far as possible, a further occurrence.

All staff are encouraged to report any incidents of inappropriate or unacceptable behaviour at work or that occurs during the course of employment, on or off premises, including at work social events (whether organised by the company or not) or at formal or informal events involving staff, learners, customers or other work-related contacts.

Equal Opportunities Monitoring

The company will monitor the effectiveness of this policy to ensure it is achieving its objectives.

As part of this process, we monitor:

- The composition of job applicants and decisions in recruitment
- The composition of our workforce
- Access to training, promotion and other opportunities and benefits
- The impact of our employment policies
- Dismissals and other terminations

Information collected for monitoring purposes will be treated as confidential and will not be used for any other purpose.

Raising a complaint of discrimination

The company will also take seriously any malicious or, in its opinion, unwarranted allegations of discrimination and will take appropriate action, disciplinary or otherwise, where necessary. Formal complaints should be made in writing to the Head of Quality and Compliance.
